2010 Fall Workshop Series

Picturing America

Instructor: Dani Beavers
Grades: 3-8
Thursdays, Oct. 28- Dec. 9
5:30-7:00 pm

*No class Thurs. Nov. 25

This is not your textbook history class! Sponsored in part by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, this workshop will explore American history and culture through the use of art, artifacts and primary documents. Hands-on activities, lively discussions, and archeological exploration will push the boundaries of what you know about art and history.

Introduction to Latin

Instructor: Rebekah Simon
Grades: 3-8 Mondays, Oct. 18- Dec. 18
3:30-4:30 pm

Study the language and culture of the ancient Romans. Learn vocabulary and sentence structure while examining the architecture, family life, and culture of this amazing civilization. This nine-week class will be continued second semester when students will begin to translate ancient Latin texts.

Scientists on Trial

Instructor: Brennan Metzler
Grades: 4-8 Tuesdays, Oct. 26-Dec. 7
4:30-6:00 pm *No class Tues. Nov. 23

Please join us as judge and jury to prosecute and to be prosecuted! The brilliant minds of science are standing trial and you are needed to determine the verdict. Topics include theories of evolution and natural selection, the atomic weapons race, and the heliocentric model of the universe, among others.

Tutoring Test Prep Enrichment College Counseling

Whatever your student needs,
Colorado Learning Connections

has the solution.

At CLC, we help students become engaged thinkers, mathematicians, scientists, writers and historians. Through guided activities and creative problem solving, our students learn to ask questions and seek solutions.

We serve all ages, pre-kindergarten through adult, and work with you to develop an individualized program designed to meet your goals.

In addition to our enrichment workshops and tutoring sessions, we work with a number of athletes, musicians, and other students to develop educational programs that suit their unique academic and scheduling needs.
